

We consider students' Physical development through the Physical Education classes where they are encouraged to maintain healthy lifestyle and exercising.

Additionally, dedicated sessions to orient students with the changes that are about to take place and have them ready for such changes. During these sessions,

